Sunday Nite

Hello Darling

I received your letter Sat. morning, and Sydell can certainly write a beautiful letter. Send me her address so I can drop her a line. Don't blame yourself, honey, for Christmas day. It was just one of those things. But the next time I come down it will be for a few days - and then we can start making a few plans.

I certainly miss you more and more each day. It's pretty dull here without you but when I think of the future, our future, things look rosy again. This is a good business and career I've chosen and it holds lots of rewards and compensations. All it takes is a little patience, and when they think I'm ready, I'll get my store. And then things will be rosy indeed!

Tried to call you exactly at midnite New Years Eve, but you had gone to a movie with Mac and Adele. So a Happy New Year, Darling

Well, not much more to say so I'll close and put it to bed. Give my love to the folks and remember - I love you Sol
