Sunday night.

Hello Baby -

Didn't want to write you in Colorado Springs because I thought you would be home before the letter got there.

How did you enjoy the vacation? Certainly wish I could have been there with you. But it certainly was good to hear your voice over the telephone. Second best is better than none at all.

The work here is pretty fascinating, but oh how my feet hurt at the end of the day. Three weeks now and they still hurt. But some of the oldtimers say that you gradually get use to it. I hope so.

Am staying in a nice part of the city in a private home but it's a little too far out so I'm looking for one closer in to the business-section. Preferably a small efficiency apartment but will settle for a nice comfortable bedroom. The hotels limit their stay to only five days so that's out of the question.

Baby - I'm leaving here Tuesday night when the store closes and should get there ~~Friday~~ Wed. morning. That should give us all day Wednesday and Thursday. Will wire you when I leave here.

You know how I am about letter writing - never say much and they all sound like a newspaper story. But I do know this

- I miss you more and more everyday and love you more and more everyday. So help me - that's the ~~truth~~.

write soon,
all my love.

Sol

Give my love to the folks
and tell them will see them Thanksgiving.
